"Buckwhent Cakes and Measles."

When a young husband had gone from home, and with fond solicitude telegraphed his little wife-"what have you for breakfast, and how's the baby" -he received the brief suggestive reply -"Buck wheat Cakes and the Measles." We have the report of a case in our nildst, not where measles was in the bill of fare, but where Sciatle Rheuroatism confined Mr. J. Dawson, the wellnot have died in vain; that Kentucky, known druggist, to his room for a long period. It was stated to our reporter in the following words: The senior of this tirm was attacked with Schrie Rhenmatlsm December last, and for Klinney," the "ilon-hearted Wittaker," four weeks could scarcely leave his the "matchless Capt. Hill," and the room. He used St. Jacobs Dil, and is host of those who stood with them in anwable to be at his place of business, war and stand now with them in feeling no worse for his recent attlic-
